

Comprehensive Real Estate Representation Marks Decades of Service for the Charles Sampson Group of Charter One Realty

July 14, 2026

HILTON HEAD, SC - July 14, 2026 -

The Charles Sampson Group of Charter One Realty reaffirms its commitment to comprehensive real estate representation for buyers and sellers navigating the Hilton Head and Bluffton real estate market.

With nearly 40 years of service in the Lowcountry, the firm emphasizes a full-service approach that supports clients from the initial consultation through closing and beyond, rather than focusing solely on individual transactions.

With ongoing interest in waterfront, vacation, and primary residences along the South Carolina coast, the Charles Sampson Group of Charter One Realty provides comprehensive real estate representation that combines local market insight, contract guidance, negotiation, and coordination with affiliated professionals.

Since 1985, Charles Sampson of Charter One Realty has built a long-standing presence in the Hilton Head real estate market and community. Charles Sampson's decades of experience living and working on Hilton Head Island have shaped the group's approach to pricing, neighborhood selection, and market timing.

The Charles Sampson Group operates as a team-based practice, enabling the group to serve a wide range of clients, from first-time buyers to retirees making lifestyle-driven moves. By coordinating among agents familiar with the island's neighborhoods and resources, the team helps clients assess both properties and the realities of living in each area.

Through its comprehensive real estate representation, the firm guides clients on market trends, area-specific considerations, and contract terms while also connecting them with local professionals for inspections, repairs, insurance, and closing support. Charles Sampson's experience with Hilton Head's waterfront and vacation properties allows him to advise clients on considerations such as rental potential, association requirements, and seasonal market patterns.

Charles Sampson's long-standing involvement in real estate and the local community reflects his ongoing engagement. Beyond his professional work, he has contributed to community development and housing initiatives, including efforts that support housing access in Beaufort County.

The firm's focus on comprehensive real estate representation reflects clients' growing expectations for clear communication and ongoing support during complex transactions. In Hilton Head and Bluffton, factors like coastal regulations, association policies, and maintenance costs affect both purchasing decisions and resale value. By staying involved from initial discussions through post-closing, the Charles Sampson Group of Charter One Realty helps clients make informed decisions that align with their long-term goals.

Clients receive detailed attention to their ownership goals, whether for permanent relocation, a second home, or a luxury property that serves as both a retreat and a rental investment. The team takes time to learn each client's preferred lifestyle, such as proximity to golf, water access, dining, schools, or cultural amenities, and uses this information to identify suitable neighborhoods and property types. This approach helps reduce uncertainty for out-of-area buyers unfamiliar with local communities.

For sellers, the firm uses its knowledge of pricing trends, buyer expectations, and neighborhood dynamics to help owners prepare and position their homes for the market. This includes advising on timing, presentation, and terms that reflect current conditions in Hilton Head and Bluffton.

The firm's longstanding presence in the Lowcountry has contributed to repeat business and referrals from clients who have bought and sold multiple properties over time. Many client relationships began with relocation or vacation-home purchases and continued as those needs evolved, reflecting the value of long-term representation.

Charles Sampson of Charter One Realty is based in Hilton Head Island and serves clients throughout Hilton Head Island and Bluffton. The office is available by telephone at (843) 384-7300, and additional information about services and current listings is available on the group's website at <https://charlessampson.com/>.
